The Bagnan College NSS Unit I, II and III celebrated the 166th foundation day of Calcutta University. Calcutta University was established on 24 January 1857 and is the oldest multidisciplinary university of Indian Subcontinent and South East Asian Region. It has been providing rigorous and comprehensive academic programs that promote excellence in learning by maintaining high education standards for the growth and development of the students. On this occasion the G.B. President, Manas Kumar Basu and the college Principal, Badal Kumar Maity hoisted Calcutta University Flag in the presence of NSS volunteers, faculty-members and non-teaching staff. The volunteers also displayed their drum skills. The G.B. President, Manas Kumar Basu and the college Principal, Badal Kumar Maity shared their views on the working and contribution of Calcutta University for our society.
